PART I—Section 1Notifications relating to Non-Statutory Rules, Regulations and Orders and Resolutions issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by the Supreme Court*PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIATNew Delhi, the 22nd August 1961*

No 39-Pres./61—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Lakhu Singh, Inspector of Police, Anti-Decoy Force, Jaipur, Rajasthan

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On receipt of information through a police informer that notorious dacoits Akhey Singh, Anand Singh and Bhanwar Singh were preparing to commit a dacoity in the house of one Jagannath Brahman in village Kundera, District Sawai Madhopur, with the help of one Ganglia Jat, a party of selected Police officers and men under the command of Inspector Lakhu Singh left Jaipur with the informer on the night of the 20th February, 1961 and camped secretly at the informer's house. A second Police party under the command of the Superintendent of Police, Jaipur, left Jaipur at about 9.15 p.m. on the 21st February, 1961, and joined the first Police party in the jungle near the field of Akhey Singh at village Sundariawas as planned. At about 11.15 p.m. another police informer brought word that the dacoits, who were actually five in number, had assembled in Akhey Singh's field and were ready with their arms and ammunition waiting only for the camels to arrive.

The two police forces were combined and then redivided into three parties under the respective commands of the Superintendent of Police, Jaipur, Inspector Lakhu Singh and Reserve Inspector Sudhan Singh. When they had taken up their positions, the party under Reserve Inspector Sudhan Singh shouted to the dacoits to throw down their arms and surrender. The dacoits, however, split themselves into two parties and while dacoits Akhey Singh and Ganpatia Meena started moving towards the village Anand Singh Bhanwar Singh and Sheoji Singh made towards the position behind the med where the police headed by the Superintendent of Police were lying in wait. Dacoits Akhey Singh and Ganpatia Meena were fired on by Reserve Inspector Sudhan Singh's party but, taking advantage of the topography of the area made good their escape. The Superintendent of Police's party fired on the other three dacoits who immediately took cover on higher ground and returned the fire. A fierce encounter ensued and as a result of the firing the dacoits tried to make good their escape. In their flight they proceeded towards Head Constable Dal Singh of Inspector Lakhu Singh's party. Head Constable Dal Singh standing behind the med, fired at the dacoits and brought one of them down. A second dacoit took up his position behind a tree and continued firing at the Head Constable. Inspector Lakhu Singh finding Head Constable Dal Singh in imminent danger, crossed the med in utter disregard of his personal safety and with a burst from his sten gun shot this dacoit dead at point blank range. The third dacoit Sheoji Singh, who was unarmed, tried to get the rifle of his comrade. A second burst from Inspector Lakhu Singh's sten gun gave him no chance and he also succumbed to it. Meanwhile the first dacoit who was lying injured, stealthily aimed at Shri Lakhu Singh and was about to fire when Constable Heera Ram seeing this dashed forward and, throwing himself upon the dacoit, pushed his rifle away so saving the life of Inspector Lakhu Singh.

In this successful encounter with a gang of notorious dacoits, Shri Lakhu Singh showed conspicuous gallantry presence of mind and devotion to duty of a very high order in complete disregard of his personal safety.

2 This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

In this scuffle, the dacoit pressed the trigger of his rifle and Constable Heera Ram had a narrow and providential escape. At this point two other constables came forward and with their help the dacoit was liquidated.

In this successful encounter with a gang of notorious dacoits Constable Heera Ram showed presence of mind and devotion to duty of a high order at grave risk to his own life.

2 This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
